

subjected, frankly, to the whim and the caprice of the numbers of bills that are introduced and the kind of push behind each bill. I ask you, one time let us follow a rule which is in place in one form or another in our 49 companion states.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the closing on the Vard Johnson amendments, amendment, second amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 7 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of that proposal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The amendment fails. Do you have anything else? Do you want to read something in?

CLERK: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I may, new bills. (Read LB 874-890 by title for the first time. See pages 206-9 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Haberman would like to move to withdraw LB 770. That will be laid over pursuant to our rules.

Mr. President, the next rules change I have is by Senator Johnson.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes. Mr. Speaker and members of the body, Section 6, though it could stand alone, really only fits with Sections 3, 4 and 5 if they are adopted, and inasmuch if they are not adopted, I will exercise my prerogative to withdraw Section 6 at this time.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It is withdrawn. Is that the end of the rules? That is the end of Vard Johnson's rules. Do we have anything else to discuss in the way of rules?

CLERK: Mr. President, yes, we do. The next proposal I have is by Senator Harris.
